SNOW BLOCKADE IS BEING LIFTED

Only Two Railroad Lines Are Still Forts Sam Houston and Hunchnen Are Blocked; Snowplows Are Busy Reeping Trackage Clear, Plans of War Department. Blocked; Snowplows Are Busy Keeping Trackage Clear.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 8.—Denver and Colorado made marked strides today toward lifting the three day blockade incident to the fall of more than 45 inches of snow in Denver last week. All railroads reported more or less complete train service in and out of Denver.

Occupants of an apartment house at least 10th avenue and Lincoln street, in the fashionable Capitol Hill district, were sent shivering into the street thin by clad early today by a fire, the smoke from which penetrated every floor. Fire fighting apparatus which responded to the call became stuck in a snew bank half a block from the building. When the firemen reached the structure they found the ianitor in the basement overcome by smoke. He was later revived. The blaze originated in and was confined to the basement.

Two Railroads Still Blocked.

Only two lines of railroad were resorted still blocked. They were the Union Pacific from Denver to Kansas City, and the Colondo and Southern line to Idaho Springs.

Officials of 3-th mode expressed the hope that trains would start to these points sometime today. Some roads still were operating snowplows today at various points to prevent further interruption of traffic by drifting snow.

Like the wine from which she takes her name, "Madam Sherry" does not grow any the worse for age. Although Ell Pasoans nave had their ears tickled with the music and have laughed at the comedy of "Madam Sherry" for two seasons, the audience at the El Paso theater Sunday night enjoyed the per-formance immensely. The producing company is an exceedingly good one. Generally, the third year production is put out just to clean up the loose ends and get in all the money possible at as little cost to the management as pos-sible. With the "Madam Sherry," the third year company is exceedingly good.

Nat A. ## MYSTERY SURROUNDS | TEXAS LEADS SOUTH REPORTED RESCUE

Supposed Rescuing Ship is in Balti-more: Blo Grande Not Licensed to Carry Passengers, Report. Norfolk, Va., Dec. 8.—Mystery sur-rounding the reported rescue of 187 passengers from the Mallory liner Rio Grande during a fire at sea north of the Diamond shoals early yesterday, re-mained unsalved today.

the Diamond shoals early yesterday, remained unsolved today.
Although a wireless from Virginia Beach to New York late last night reported Capt. Dodge, of the British steamer Swammore, having been the rescuer, the Swammore is at Baltimore. The captain of the Merchants and Mineral liner Suwanee, which was in the vicinity, was spoken late last night by the Charleston, S. C., wireless, but knew nothing of the rescue.

Agents of the Mallory line say the Rio Grande was not licensed to carry passengers. The Rio Grande today was on her way to Brunswick, Ga., with passengers aboard, according to wireless.
